PROJECTS

Churn prediction using Ann (Minor Project)

Built and trained an Artificial Neural Network (ANN) To predict customer churn from structured behavioral data, achieving 90%

House price prediction using linear regression. (Minor Project)

Developed a multiple linear regression model to predict residential real estate prices based on structural and regional features, achieving an

Churn using any ML model and compare the accuracy of both the models (BM) algorithms for customer churn prediction.

Churn using any ML model and data models (Major Project)

Comparative analysis of Machine Learning and Deep Learning algorithms for prices based on structural and regional features, achieving an R^2 score of 0.87.

Find the classification models precision,recall and accuracy (Major Project)

Implemented and benchmarked multiple classification algorithms, evaluating model performance across Precision, Recall, F1-score, and ROC-AUC.
